

Weekly Pride Check-Up from Bro. Dean:

35. Don't Admit Wrong Doing (Proverbs 28:13; James 5:16)

"I have a hard time admitting that I am wrong. I find myself covering up or excusing my sins. It is hard for me to confess my sins to others or to ask for forgiveness."

36. Do Not Welcome Correction (Proverbs 15:12)

"I view correction as an intrusion into my privacy rather than an instrument of God for my welfare. I can't identify anyone who I would feel welcome to correct me."

37. Resent People Who Correct Me (Proverbs 9:7-9)

"I resent people who attempt to correct me. I don't respond with gratefulness and sincere appreciation for their input. Instead I am tempted to accuse them and dwell on their faults. I get bitter and withdraw."

38. Contentious and Argumentative (James 1:19-20)

"When corrected, I become contentious and argumentative. I don't take people's observations seriously. I minimize and make excuses or give explanations."

Read with the following suggestions in mind.

1. Ask God to illuminate your mind so you can discover any pride that may exist in your life.
2. Ask God to convict you on specific points of pride.
3. Confess your pride to God and ask for His forgiveness (1 John 1:9).
4. Ask God to give you a holy hatred for pride & its fruit. Be continually on the alert.
