

From the desk of DDD:

In case you missed Bro. Bob Pitman Sunday night, I am sharing his message notes. It was a timely and needed reminder to Christians about how we can so easily neglect our salvation.

5 Warnings To Saved People Neglecting Your Salvation Hebrews 2:1-3

1. What does it mean to neglect your salvation?
  - To neglect means “not to care”; to make light of; To make it unimportant
2. What would cause a Christian to allow neglect to happen: they have forgotten
  - How great a salvation it is
  - It’s greatness - the One who gave it; the price God paid
  - The change it made in our lives
3. How does a Christian neglect their salvation?
  - Slips away; means to slowly drift
  - Transgression; to step over God’s prohibition
  - Total disobedience; to abandon God’s authority
4. What the results of neglect are (Recompense)
  - Retribution; Lose fellowship with God
  - No joy in your salvation; No peace in your life; Extreme cases, possible death (1 Cor 11:30)
5. How to avoid neglecting
  - Stay connected through the Bible
  - Pray often and seriously
  - Be faithful & obedient
  - Know that you can recover & return from your neglect
